CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 1.

THE late News from Smyrna has alarmed us very much. About ten Days ago the Ambaſſadors and Miniſters here received from thence the Account of a very extenſive and devouring Fire, which, by ſome fatal Accident, broke out on the 6th of laſt Month, at midnight, and during 26 Hours, involved in its Progreſs the whole Quarter of the City, called the Frank Quarter, inhabited entirely by the different factories of ſeveral foreign Nations trading there, particularly the Engliſh, French, Dutch, Venetian, Imperial, Swediſh, Daniſh, and Ragueſan. By the Engliſh Conſul's Account, not a Merchant's, nor Conſul's Houſe is left ſtanding, except his own, and that not entire, nor without ſuffering great Damage. Even their Magazines, the Repoſitories of all their various Merchandize (which had hitherto been looked upon as Fire-proof) burſt, through the intenſe Violence of the Flames; the Scene of Deſolation is on all Sides terrible. The Loſs ſuſtained is reckoned, by a groſs Computation, at a Million and Half of Turkiſh Dollars, or near 200,000 l. Sterling.

Rome, Sept. 17. As by the Accounts received from thence, the Behaviour of the Turkiſh Officers, during the late War, gave the greateſt Cauſe of Complaint to the Powers by it, all the Chriſtian Miniſters reſiding there, have preſented Memorials to the Porte on that Occaſion.

Rome, Sept. 17. A Cauſe has lately been tried here, the Deciſion of which gives general Satisfaction. In the Month of December, 1760, one Flavio Friſciatti, a very rich old Gentleman of Macerata, was murdered at his Country-Houſe at Villa-Nova. One Cippolato, and another named Spiccia, two of the Murderers, were immediately taken, and confeſſed their Crime; but a third Perſon, named Marconi, who was ſuſpected, made his Eſcape. He was afterwards apprehended by the Diligence of Mr. Friſciatti's Son, but inſtantly denied having any Part in the Murder. The Governor of Macerata, in order to get Poſſeſſion of the Deceaſed's immenſe Wealth, inſiſted one of the two Aſſaſſins, who had confeſſed their Crime, to accuſe the Son of ſuborning them to kill his Father. Young Friſciatti, perceiving the Governor's Villainy, fled from Macerata, came and ſurrendered himſelf a Priſoner here, and demanded Juſtice. The Governor was turned out of his Place, and impriſoned a great while ago. Friſciatti having juſt now proved his Innocence before the Tribunal of the Sacred Conſulta, to which he appealed from the Sentence of the Court at Macerata, the Judge who tried him is ſentenced to pay him his Coſts and Damages, the Criminal Notary, Joſeph Carlini, is ſent to the Galleys for Life, Germanus Sanni, Lieutenant of the Juriſdiction, is ordered to be ſent to the Galleys during the Pleaſure of the Sacred Conſulta, and declared incapable of ever acting in any Court of Judicature; and two Aſſeſſors are ordered, one to the Galleys for Life, and the other to perpetual Baniſhment. The two Aſſaſſins who confeſſed the Murder have been hanged; the third, who even under the Torture denied the Crime, is condemned to the Galleys for ten Years. When Friſciatti was brought out of Priſon, after having had his Innocence fully juſtified, a great Number of Gentlemen carried him, in a Kind of Triumph, to the Pope, who honoured him with his Bleſſing, and as an Earneſt of the good effects of it, immediately preſented him with a Purſe of 200 Roman Crowns.

Ratiſbon, Oct. 13. It is apprehended that the Election of a new King of Poland will diſturb the Tranquility ſo lately reſtored to Europe; ſeveral of the neighbouring Powers being too much intereſted in that Election, to look upon the Event of it with Indifference. The Ruſſian Troops remaining upon the Frontiers, the Diſſentions ſubſiſting Courland, the inteſtine Diviſions among the Grandees of Poland and Lithuania, and the Preparations already made by the neighbouring Powers, ſhew that this Election will not go very quietly carried on.

LONDON, November 2.

Abſtract of the Convention made between the King of Sardinia, the moſt Chriſtian King, and the Catholic King; concerning the Preſervation of his Sardinian Majeſty to the Dutchy of Placentia.

Article I. Their moſt Chriſtian and Catholic Majeſties acknowledge again, in Favour of the King of Sardinia, the Right of Reverſion to the Sovereignty of the City of Placentia, and to the Part of the Placentine, as far as the River Nura, as mentioned in the Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, in Caſe of Failure of the Male Line of the Infanto Don Philip, as alſo in Caſe this Prince or his Heirs ſhould ſucceed to one of the Crowns of his Family.

II. Their moſt Chriſtian and Catholic Majeſties Guarantee the aforeſaid Reverſion againſt all Powers that might attempt to oppoſe it.

III. Till ſuch Time as the ſaid Reverſion may happen, his Sardinian Majeſty ſhall enjoy the ſame annual Revenue (deducting the Charges of Government) which the City and Territory mentioned in the firſt Article would yield him, were he in actual Poſſeſſion thereof; to which End, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will remit to his Sardinian Majeſty the Capital Sum of the Revenue of the ſaid Territories.

IV. Whenever the Reverſion happens, the King of Sardinia is to reſtore the capital Sum mentioned in the preceding Article.

V. The King of Sardinia ſhall enjoy the Equivalent for the Revenues of the Placentine, from the 10th of March of the preſent Year, being the Day of exchanging the Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace of France and Spain with England; agreeably to the moſt Chriſtian King's Letter to his Sardinian Majeſty, dated the 5th of February 1759.

VI. The preſent Convention ſhall be communicated to the other Powers concerned in the Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, and the Three contracting Monarchs will require their Guarantee thereof.

VII. The Ratifications of the preſent Convention ſhall be exchanged within a Month, or ſooner, if poſſible.

Done at Paris the 10th of June 1763, ſigned by the Baill Solar de Breille on the Part of Sardinia, Choiſeuil Duke de Praſlin for France, and the Marquis Grimaldi for Spain.

There are two ſeparate Articles, the firſt of which is only Matter of Form, about Titles in the full Powers of the Miniſters; and the other ſtipulates, that though the Convention is made in the French Tongue, this ſhall not be conſidered as of any Conſequence, nor be drawn into a Precedent.

The erazing and demoliſhing the Fortifications of Weſel, Gueldres, Lipſtadt and Hamm, &c. by his Pruſſian Majeſty's Orders, carried on with the greateſt Expedition.

A certain noble Perſon of Diſtinction expended very lately the Sum of 4000 l. in about ſix Weeks, at Paris, to the great Credit of himſelf and the Nation.

It is hoped that an Embargo will be ſhortly laid on the Lords and Ladies of this Kingdom, or the Amuſements of Paris will leave our Nation Peerleſs, Lord H——d's Son, now at Paris, we are aſſured, drew on his Father in one Bill for 30,000 l. which was immediately paid——[Thus goes the Treaſure, which has been drawn from the Vitals of this Nation.]

The Hon. Lord Clive has purchaſed the large Eſtate and Manor of ——— Wallcott, Eſq; of Walleott, in the County of Shropſhire, for 90,000 l.

Yeſterday about Noon a Publican in Shore-ditch, and one Mr. Phillips, who keeps an Intelligence Office in Finch-lane, were brought before Alderman Dickenſon at Guildhall, by a large Body of Sailors, who charged Mr. P. with having taken ſeveral Sums of Money from Sailors at the Publican's Houſe, under Pretence of getting the Government to take their Affair off, which the Sailors believed was only a Deceit: Upon hearing their Story, the Alderman told them, as the Caſe aroſe in Middleſex, he would recommend them to go to one of the Juſtices of that County, upon which they took the two Delinquents away; and as the Sailors went out of the Hall, ſome of them ſwore that if they could not have the ſaid Delinquents committed to Priſon they would cut both their Ears off. The Sailors let the Publican go after they came out of Guildhall, and carried Mr. Phillips to Towerhill where they obliged him to go down on his knees and aſk Pardon; and then they took him to the Flower-Pot in Boſhopſgate-Street, where after ſtaying ſome Time, they left him: And, ſome Perſon having made them believe the above Publican had deſigned to defraud them, about five o'Clock in the Afternoon they went in a riotous Manner to the Publican's Houſe, and, notwithſtanding he had placed a Guard of Soldiers before his Door, they pulled down the Sign and broke it to Pieces; upon which the Soldiers fired ſeveral Times, and killed four People upon the Spot, beſides wounding ſeveral others: A Lad in particular was ſhot through both Cheeks: An additional Party of Soldiers came ſoon after the Affair was over, and as the Sailors threaten to come with a great Number this Day, it is ſaid the Guards will be kept for ſome Time. There did not appear to be either a Juſtice of Peace or a Conſtable preſent when the Soldiers fired, and the whole Miſchief was done in a few Minutes after the Sailors came to the Publican's Houſe. One of the Perſons killed was a well dreſſed Man, who was paſſing by when the Affair happened.

It has been an old Obſervation, that the vox Populi is the vox Dei: In ſome Caſes it may be true; but whoever conſiders the fatal Conſequences of ſome late Riots, particularly that of the Sailors on Towerhill a few Weeks ago, and that in Shoreditch on Monday laſt, will be rather of Opinion that the vox populi is too often the vox diaboli.

On Monday Night, at the Diſturbance in Shoreditch, the Rioters were ſo Outrageous as not only to pelt the Guards with Brickbats, Stones, &c. but even forced Bayonets from ſeveral of their Muſquets, before they were ordered to fire.

At the late Riot in Shoreditch a Carman was ſhot acroſs the Belly that ſome of his Bowels came out.

Oct. 28. We learn from France, that an Artiſt there has lately invented a new Kind of Spectacles, three Inches long, and eighteen Lines in Diameter, with four Glaſſes, which are far ſuperior to any hitherto diſcovered.

We are informed, that notwithſtanding the Britiſh Subjects are in Poſſeſſion of all Canada, a great Quantity of Furs, &c. from thoſe Parts, by Way of Miſſiſippi, have lately arrived in France.

At the Window of an Office, not far from Crutched-Friars, the following Notice we are told, is ſtuck up in the Window, in the true Hibernian Style, viz. No Certificates will be delivered but on the firſt Wedneſday in every Week.

Wedneſday a Butcher, near St. James's-market, driving ſome Sheep home for Slaughter, one running from the Reſt, he ſent (what they term a Kephack) his Dog after him, which ſeizing the Stray, held him till his Brother Brute came up, who very dexterouſly cutting his Legs off at the Knuckles, drove him home with much Pleaſure and Satisfaction.

In Order to ſecure a perpetual Tranquility with the Spaniards to the Southward, three Ships of War are conſtantly to cruize near the Iſland of Rattan, in the Bay of Honduras, about ten Leagues from the Moſquito Shore, whoſe Harbour of Port Royal is capable of containing Five Hundred Sail in all Weathers.

Letters from Altena, of the 15th Inſtant, adviſe, that they had a certain Account from Lunenburg, that the Workmen were employed there, with the greateſt Expedition, to get the Palace ready by the 20th of next Month, for the Reception of the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, and his intended Conſort Princeſs Auguſta of England.

It is expected that the Number of Petitioners who will attend the next Seſſions of Parliament to obtain the Repeal of the Cyder Act, will be no leſs than they were in 1733, againſt the General Exciſe, when the Common Council of London declared, that "The Extenſion of ſuch Laws muſt neceſſarily increaſe the Number and Power of Officers, which would be inconſiſtent with thoſe Principles of Liberty on which their happy Conſtitution ſtitution was founded; and would farther deprive the Subjects of England of ſome of thoſe valuable Privileges, which had hitherto diſtinguiſhed them from the neighbouring Nations."

No leſs than Twelve Sixty-four-Gun Ships, which were contracted for by the French King during the late War, are ready to be Launched in the ſeveral Ports of the Northern Powers.

Letters arrived from Liſbon Yeſterday, dated the 6th, bring Advice of the Arrival there of the Centurion Man of War, on board of which was His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, who, on his going aſhore, was attended by a great Number of Perſons of the higheſt Rank, and, during his Stay there, was to reſide at Count Carvallo's, his Portugueſe Majeſty's Chief Secretary of State.

Tho' ſeveral material Articles are omitted in the late Proclamation for the Encouragement of Settlers in Florida, we hear every Adventurer who chuſes to accept the Benefit, will be entitled to the ſame Advantages with the Settlers of Nova-Scotia, and alſo be ſubſiſted for twelve Months after their Arrival, at the public Expence.

A few Nights ſince, a Man, genteelly dreſſed, knocked at a Lady's Door in Martlet Court, Bow-ſtreet, and it was opened by the Lady herſelf. He enquired if her Name was W——, and being anſwered in the Affirmative, he ſaid he wanted to ſpeak to her on material Buſineſs. He was uſhered into the Parlour, when he inſtantly faſtened the door on the inſide, pulled out a Piſtol, and demanded two Guineas; Mrs. W—— replied ſhe had not ſo much in the Houſe; he told her he knew ſhe had much more, and if ſhe did not inſtantly ſupply him, ſhe was a dead Woman. "Will you not then (ſays ſhe) if I ſhould ſupply you with two Guineas, take all the Caſh I have from me?" 'No, replied he, upon my Honour.' She then opened a Drawer, in which were above twenty Pounds, and gave him the Sum he required, which he received, without offering to touch any of the reſt, and very politely took his Leave.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, Sept. 12.

"You who indulge in Eaſe and Luxury in London, feel no Senſations for the Cruelties practiſed on our Frontier Settlers, from the provok'd, deſpiſed and neglected Indians, tho' otherwiſe I might have ſtiled them bold and courageous Indians, by the Introduction of that curſed parſimonious Œconomy into our Continent. We might have prevented all theſe Cruelties if our * had liſtened to the Advice of Sir W—— J—— on the Surrender of Montreal, where was found a Quantity of Preſents to the Value of a few Hundred Pounds, deſigned by the French for the Indians; who gave it as his Opinion, "That a formal "Proceſſion, as Conquerors, ſhould be made into "the City; that it was then neceſſary, to gain "the Eſteem and Friendſhip of the Indians; and, "to give them ſome Ideas of our Power and Grandeur, not only to invite them to aſſiſt at the Proceſſion, but at the End of it make a general "Diſtribution of ſuch Preſents to the Heads of all "the Tribes preſent." But this Advice was neglected, as well as the poor Indians, who, from a Senſe of the many Contempts thrown on them, have now united to Defend their own Properties, and drive the Engliſh out of their Lands, &c."

Extract of a Letter from Gordz, in Provence, Sept. 6.

"The World has heard of the great Earthquakes we have had in our Neighbourhood, but it knows not yet the deplorable Conſequences they have been attended with. Three of the higheſt Rocks on the Hill which our Town ſtands on were ſhook ſo violently by the Earthquakes that it was feared they would ſoon tumble down. Under theſe Rocks was a conſiderable Village, whoſe Inhabitants, ſeeing the imminent Danger, abandoned their Houſes: Happily for them! for the Day before Yeſterday, about VIII in the Evening, theſe three enormous Rocks fell down, with a moſt dreadful Craſh, entirely deſtroyed 14 Houſes, which are buried under them, and Splitting and Tearing to Pieces 5 or 6 others. There were but one Man and a Woman killed, who were ſo obſtinate they would not quit their Habitation. A Number of Cattle periſhed. The heavy Rains we had laſt Month have doubtleſs haſtened the fall of theſe Rocks. All the Country is in a Conſternation, ſome for what they have loſt, others for what they run the Riſk of loſing. The Tanneries, which produced here a conſiderable Revenue, have been ſwallowed up. There are ſtill 3 or 4 Rocks which threaten Deſtruction, and which, if they ſhould fall, will drag with them above half the Village."

A Letter from Smyrna concludes thus: "We know not from what Motive the Cadi had the Barbarity to refuſe giving any Orders to prevent the Progreſs of the Fire, which certainly might have been ſtopt at the firſt Houſe, but for his Obſtinacy and Inhumanity. Perhaps he imagines that it is an Action agreeable to Mahomet, not to prevent, or even to ſecond, the Ruin of Chriſtians. But what is ſtill more grievous, and which proves the Badneſs of Heart of the Inhabitants in general, is that the Unfortunate, who have loſt their All, can find no Aſſiſtance, nor lodging. Their diſtreſsful Situation is not capable of moving the Compaſſion of either Turks, Greeks, or Jews, who have ſet a moſt exorbitant Price upon every Thing the Sufferers immediately ſtand in Need of; ſo that if Providence does not ſupply them, nothing but Death can put an End to the Miſery of the poor Chriſtians."

Newcaſtle, Oct. 11. We have Advice here, that laſt Week there was a great Riot at Edinburgh, and that the Lord Provoſt has been graſſed, i. e. ſuperſeded by the City Electors: The Train-bands were raiſed, and the King's Guards attacked and diſperſed, and the Guard-houſe, &c. deſtroyed. How this Diſturbance will end, we are at a Loſs to conjecture. The Lord Provoſt is generally elected for two Years; and, it is ſaid, the late one had laid ſome Sort of Tax upon the common People, which they would not ſubmit to.

MARYLAND, Patowmack River, George-Town, Dec. 10, 1763.

AS I am fully determined on going Home in the Spring 1765, if then alive, in order to make a Settlement with my Employers, Messieurs JOHN GLASSFORD and Company, Merchants in GLASGOW, which I cannot accomplish without making Settlements with my Customers; I take this Method of informing them, That from this Date I have given up the Management of the Store to Mr. Robert Ferguson, (who is well known to most of them) that I may have it in my Power to attend properly on settling all my former Transactions, and which I hope I shall not be difficulted to get done against the Spring 1765, having now all my Accounts ready for that Purpose, and I flatter myself that none concerned will delay it on their Part, for however much I am inclined to be indulgent to those who really have it not in their Power to make Payment soon, yet I am under a Necessity of requiring that every Person who have open Accounts with me, shall make a Settlement of such Account, and their doing it soon will prevent them from being put to Expences, as well as Trouble to me. The Store at George-Town, on Patowmack River, now under the Management of Mr. Robert Ferguson, will be supplied with Goods, &c. as usual, and I have not the least doubt of his giving Satisfaction to all who are Kind enough to favour him with their Custom, as well to my good old Customers, as to others who may incline to open a Correspondence with him. My Intention is to return to George-Town as early in the Spring 1766, as I can finish the Business on which I am going Home. All just Claims against me, whether on Account of the Store, or properly on my own Account, shall be settled before I depart the Province.
